Dated: 20.12. 2006

By the Court

Hon'ble Rajesh Tandon, J.

Heard Sri Vivek Shukla, Advocate for applicant and the A.G.A. for the prosecution.

The applicant has applied for bail in case crime No. 31 of 2006, for the offences punishable under sections 420, 467, 468 and 471 I.P.C. Police Station, Mussoorie, District Dehradun.

The allegation against the accused is that he personated himself to be a successful selected candidate of Indian Administrative Service and with the help of forged and fake documents, fraudulently attempted to take admission in I.A.S. Academy, Mussoorie.

Counsel for the accused applicant has submitted that it was not probable that applicant would take admission in the Academy in place of a person who was alive and has already taken admission in the Academy.

Without expressing anything on the merit of the case, I am of the opinion that it is a fit case for bail.

Let the accused applicant be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Magistrate concerned.
